2007 AMICI CELLARS CABERNET SAUVIGNON NAPA VALLEY

ABOUT THE WINE: The 2007 Amici Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon is a blend from several excellent vineyards in the Napa Valley. We hand-selected the highest quality grapes from valley floor vineyards on Zinfandel Lane in St. Helena and Maple Lane in Calistoga, and blended them with the finest grapes from high on Spring Mountain. The result is a beautifully balanced wine with the hallmarks of its origins: lush fruit of valley floor vineyards, framed by firm but supple hillside tannins.

2007 VINTAGE: This excellent vintage began with a dry, warm spring leading to an early budbreak. Summer temperatures were mild and consistent, allowing clusters to ripen at an unhurried pace. The lack of rain early in the year gave us a smaller than average berry size, resulting in concentrated flavors of unusual depth and complexity.

WINEMAKER NOTES: This wine displays ample aromas of currants and wild berries along with cedar and espresso, while the flavors showcase the essence of black fruits, toffee, and mocha.
